CLCON No. 312/2004

Hon'ble P.C. Pant, J.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the respondent states that the impugned order has been complied with by the respondent, and appointment letter has been issued to the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, now does not want to press the contempt petition in view of the aforesaid fact.

Accordingly, the contempt petition is dismissed as not pressed. The notices issued to the respondent stands discharged.
